STATE'S MOTION TO KEEP CASE ON DOCKET
U.C.D. Rule 48(b)(2)

NICHOLAS J. WORTHING

AUGUSTA COURT
MAR 19 '18 PM 12:4

NOW COMES the State and moves, upon good cause, to keep the above matter on the docket. The State submits as follows:

1. The Defendant is charged by complaint with two felony charges (Stalking, Class C). This case is currently pending in the Kennebec County Unified Criminal Docket.
2. The Defendant will have gone through three cycles of Grand Jury after March 23, 2018.
3. This matter is currently being rescheduled for a first dispositional conference, which will provide the parties with an opportunity to discuss this matter further.
4. The State has contacted defense counsel, Attorney Whittier, who does not object to this motion.
5. The State is requesting that the Court keep the case on the docket until one month after the dispositional conference date in 2018. If the case is not resolved at the dispositional conference, the State plans to present this case to the Grand Jury at the next available Grand Jury session.

WHEREFORE the State submits that there is good cause to grant this motion because the case has not yet been conferenced by the parties. The Defendant is not in-custody. The State prays that this motion is granted and that the Court keep the case on the docket.

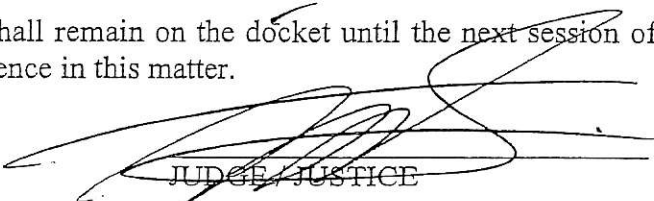

Dated: 3/16/18

NICHOLAS J. WORTHING)

PROBABLE CAUSE AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF ARREST OF
NICHOLAS J. WORTHING

[M.R.U.CRIM.P 4A (b)(2) initial determination of probable cause]

TO: Any Judge of the Unified Criminal Docket:

I, Detective Herbert Leighton, having been duly sworn, depose and say as follows:

1. Based on the following facts, I have probable cause to believe that Nicholas J. Worthing, date of birth [REDACTED], who is more fully described as being 5'5", having blonde hair, hazel eyes, and weighing 135 pounds, has committed the crime of Stalking (Class C), in violation of 17-A MRSA § 210-A (1) (C), occurring between May 2017, and October 2017, pursuant to one scheme or course of conduct.
2. I have been a Maine law enforcement officer since 1985, a sworn member of the Maine State Police since 1988 and a detective with the State Police Major Crimes Unit since February 1995. I am a founding member of the Maine State Police Evidence Response Team, having held the position of Team Commander from 2004 to 2015 when I retired from the team. I continue to maintain a forensic specialty in Bloodstain Pattern Analysis/Crime Scene Reconstruction since 1997 and am the founding member of the Maine State Police Bloodstain Pattern Analysis Program.
3. I am a Detective with the Major Crimes Unit of the Maine State Police and have been assigned as primary investigator regarding the stalking investigation targeting Maine State Police Trooper Eric Verhille, his wife [REDACTED], his mother [REDACTED] and his father [REDACTED].
4. The facts contained in this affidavit do not set forth all of my knowledge about this matter but are based upon the following: my own personal knowledge; knowledge obtained from other individuals during my participation in this investigation, including other law enforcement officers; my review of records related to this investigation; communications with others who have knowledge of the events and circumstances described herein; and information gained through my training and experience.

5. My conclusion that such probable cause exists is based on the following factual information:
6. On September 14th, 2017 I spoke with Eric Verhille, employed as a Maine State Police Trooper. He told me that on a day in January, 2017, he and another trooper went to serve a criminal summons on Nicholas Worthing, date of birth: [REDACTED] at Nicholas Worthing's residence, [REDACTED] for the crime of Stalking (in relation to a separate case). Tpr. Verhille described the stalking incident as "Cyber-Stalking", commonly known as repeatedly using electronic communications to harass, frighten and/or threaten someone.
7. Tpr. Verhille said Worthing refused to sign the criminal summons. Worthing was told the signature was only an acknowledgment of receipt of the summons, that it was legally required and was a separate arrestable offense for refusing to sign the summons. Worthing continued to refuse to sign the summons. Tpr. Verhille said he and his fellow trooper made the decision not to arrest Worthing, but left the summons on his table and told him what the summons was for and his court date.
8. Tpr. Verhille said a short time later (that same day), dispatchers told him Nicholas Worthing had just called, wanting to know why State Troopers were at his residence. Tpr. Verhille said he and the fellow trooper responded back to the Worthing residence, to find Worthing outside screaming at them to leave his property immediately. The troopers told Worthing they came back to re-summons him for the crime of Stalking and that he needed to sign the summons. Worthing dialed 911 from his cordless phone then ran inside his residence. The troopers followed him inside and told Worthing once again he needed to sign the summons.
9. Once inside, Worthing told the dispatcher on the line the troopers were pointing a gun at him. Tpr. Verhille said at no point did anyone point guns at Worthing. Worthing still refused to sign the summons and was arrested for refusing to sign.

10. Tpr. Verhille said his wife, [REDACTED] at a later date, received the following message on her Facebook account from a person listed as "Nick Worthing": "Question. Do you ever think that your husband being a low-life douchebag arresting a single father of his eight-year-old daughter on a summons that is complete bull shit. Might affect your life? Have a good night..."
11. On September 20th, 2017 I interviewed [REDACTED] [REDACTED] said she received the Facebook message from "Nick Worthing" sometime in May, 2017. She said she had never heard of a Nick Worthing. She read the message "Nick Worthing" sent to her a few times trying to understand it and why she was asked why it might affect her life. [REDACTED] said it was the first time as a police officer's wife she didn't feel safe for her family as it was the first time anyone from her husband's work had ever tried to seek out her family. She asked her husband if she should be concerned and said she didn't sleep that night because she felt scared and afraid for her children and her family. [REDACTED] said her husband took a screenshot of the post.
12. On September 20th, 2017 I interviewed [REDACTED], mother of Tpr. Eric Verhille. [REDACTED] said she received a Facebook message from "Nick Worthing" which read: "Your sons a scum bag. Who is no good at his job. That low life broke in to my house, illegal home invasion.....In my opinion that's why there's so many cop shootings, is because of gang members like him. Fucking scum bag." After reading the message, [REDACTED] said she was scared and didn't know why someone would write this to her. [REDACTED] said she was scared for her son. [REDACTED] said she took a screenshot of the message.
13. On September 20th, 2017, I interviewed [REDACTED] father of Tpr. Eric Verhille. [REDACTED] said he first heard of Facebook messages from "Nick Worthing" being sent to his family from his daughter-in-law, [REDACTED] who confided to him she was scared and didn't know if she should tell her husband for fear of an escalation occurring if he were to learn what "Nick Worthing" wrote to her. [REDACTED] said his wife, [REDACTED] as the second person in his family to receive a message from "Nick Worthing." [REDACTED] said his wife was upset and afraid their son might get hurt not knowing how crazy the person might be.

14. ██████ said he thought the Facebook message sent to his wife from "Nick Worthing" was sent sometime in June 2017. ██████ said he received 3 Facebook messages from "Nick Worthing" in a short time span sometime the third week of August 2017. The messages together read: "Your sons going to lern...Sorry bout it // You got good looking grandchildren....schools starting soon // Your sons a no good child molester and I'm going to make sure everybody in this community knows what that scumbag is".
15. ██████ remembered Nick Worthing from at least 10 years ago where ██████ was a teacher at Gardner High School when Nick was a student there. The only thing ██████ remembered about Nick was he was a trouble-maker and had a temper. ██████ remembered no specific conflict between himself and Nick Worthing and has had no contact with him since high school.
16. ██████ said his stomach became upset when he read these messages from "Nick Worthing" on his Facebook account. ██████ felt the messages sent to his family were threatening and worried he might do something to his grandchildren, remembering the type of temper he had in high school. ██████ wondered what his wife, daughter-in-law and his grandchildren had to do with anything and continues to be concerned why this individual would seek his family out.
17. In my interview with ██████ on September 20th, 2017, she said once she learned her father-in-law had received a Facebook message from "Nick Worthing", she checked her Facebook account to see if any more messages had come in. ██████ said she then read a new message from "Nick Worthing", that had been sent on June 28th, 2017, which read: "You got some cute kids. How would you feel if you had a armed home invasion for no reason?.....".
18. ██████ said she received a third Facebook message from "Nick Worthing", which was sent on Friday, September 1st, 2017. The message read: "Not the heck well I guess it's a positive thing that high school student died. at least Eric can't rape her". Tpr. Verhille told me the high school student referred to in the message was ██████ year-old ██████ ██████, of ██████, Maine, who died in a traffic crash on August, 31st, 2017.

19. On September 14th, 2017, an email was forwarded to this affiant that was originally sent to members of the Kennebec County Sheriff's Office from Kennebec County Sheriff's Office Criminal Intelligence Analyst Randall Parker on August 30th, 2017. Analyst Parker listed screenshots of posts Nick Worthing posted on the Kennebec County Sheriff's Office Facebook page between January through August 2017. A January 25th, 2017 post read: "..?...There's a lot of ppl not happy...Hello?...We know your homes.. Like your gang like to attack us at...Question. How would your kids feel of people showing up at your house...? Just a question because you douchebags would do it to us...Have a good night".
20. A May 29th, 2017 post send by Nick Worthing to the Kennebec County Sheriff's Office read: "Break into my house with no justified reason and there was no reason. Just ignorance. Why don't you go take out the f druggies around. "we can't just break into people's houses." You did it to me cunt heads! Fuck you low lifes! Most of this recent stuff is because of that no-good low-life Eric verhill. he's a state cop but all you lowlife's are all the same. I guess whatever happens. You had a heads up".
21. The final post Nick Worthing sent to the Kennebec County Sheriff's Office Facebook page read: "Be careful you never know what could happen at a safety check".
22. On September 15th, 2017, Facebook, Inc., confirmed receipt of a Preservation Request to preserve the Facebook account of "Nick Worthing" and the listed URL (web address) connected to the account. Facebook, Inc. stated they would take reasonable steps to preserve the account for 90 days.
23. A URL is a uniform resource locator, abbreviated as URL (also known as web address, particularly when used with HTTP), is a specific character string that constitutes a reference to a resource. In most web browsers, the URL of a web page is displayed on top, inside an address bar. An example of a typical URL would be "http://en.example.org/wiki/Main_Page".
24. On September 25th, 2017, I received a document from Maine State Police Troop D Commander, Lt. Aaron Hayden, of Facebook messages sent to the Facebook account of the Kennebec County Sheriff's Department from "Nick Worthing". One message read: "In my opinion if someone killed Eric verhille..It would be justified but I know that's just in my opinion....I'm just a daddy trying to protect his daughter but with scumbags like you out there...Idk...". Directly below this message was a picture of an adult male holding hands with a young girl, walking away from the camera, with a handgun tucked in the back waist area of the man, with what looks like a rifle strap on his back. The caption to the picture read: "When they know they're your heart And you know you are their armor And you will destroy anyone who would try to harm her". Below this post was an illustration of a large thumb's up from "Nick Worthing".

25. Another message listed in this document from "Nick Worthing", posted to the Facebook account of the Kennebec County Sheriff's Department talked about police officers trespassing "at the Smelt Camps". "Nick Worthing" wrote: "I'm thinking we could do a citizen's arrest for somebody trespassing with a deadly weapon...I believe that's are right...? Isn't it?". A third message read: "In my opinion a dog is to Serve and Protect but if that dog bites you, it should get a bullet right in the f head.. Just my opinion". This was followed by a Smiley Face with a wink.
26. On September 25th, I received a document from Katharine England from the Maine Department of Public Safety. The document included several messages sent to the Facebook account of the Maine State Police from "Nick Worthing" from June 14th, 2017 to June 19th, 2017. The messages open with: "Scum bags do your fucking job arrest at low life verhill for doing an illegal home invasion...Or are you just a gang that the public should rise up against?" After a series of posts, "Nick Worthing" writes: "Question. Am I able to go do my own citizen's arrest? What's required to do that? Since your game does not want to fallow the law...". "In my opinion if someone did an armed home invasion, that person should be in jail.....". "And in my opinion this is why you see the stuff that happens to Cops on TV".
27. "Nick Worthing" continues on then writes: "Cant say i didnt try to talk this out...Whatever happens happens..Just know I felt threatened for my life and my daughters with criminals breaking in to my home".
28. Lt. Aaron Hayden told me that, as a result of the messages "Nick Worthing" posted to the Maine State Police Facebook account, the Facebook account of "Nick Worthing" has been blocked. Lt. Hayden said to date, "Nick Worthing" has been the only account blocked on the Maine State Police Facebook page since its inception.
29. Facebook, Inc., returned records as required from a search warrant signed by Superior Court Deputy Chief Justice Robert Mullen on October 15th, 2017. Facebook records indicate the Facebook account of [REDACTED] is listed to "Nick Worthing", DOB: [REDACTED] with "Gardiner Area High School" listed under his education. Gardiner Area High School is located near Pittston, Maine, at 40 W Hill Road, Gardiner, Maine. "You're just a bunch of low-life scumbag gang. I wish I was proud of the police department but no you're low-life. Tell srg. Hood suck my dick. Pussy cant even show up. I bet he's a child molester. Sick fuck...Scum bags harass me with a summons that the District Attorney's office didn't even want to stick up for. All of you are lazy. Collecting welfare off of the Working Man, you pieces of shit!"

39. On 04-13-17 at 7:53AM (UTC), the Facebook account of Nick Worthing sent the following message to the personal Facebook account of Maine State Police Sergeant Patrick Hood:

"You're a skum bag. That's no good at your job. You give cops a bad name. You lying fuck. Don't have the balls to show. Send a pee on ha. You know your summons was Bull shit. Lol the d.a. didn't even stick up for it you stupid dumb fuck. I love how my security cameras caught your officers abusing their power. I go around showing the pubic. I think that's the way to fight your gang. let the public see what kind of scumbag gang you guys are...Please Don't Shoot Me n Call of Justified , that's what you gang members are known for...Scum bags.

40. On several instances, at various dates, the Facebook account of Nick Worthing sent the following messages to the Facebook account of the Kennebec County Sheriff's Office:

"In my opinion of someone killed Eric verhill..It would be justified but I know that's just in my opinion.....I'm just a daddy trying to protect his daughter but with scumbags like you out there...Idk..."

"Do you help [REDACTED] rape children? I bet moody holds them down...Scum bags!"

"[REDACTED] - he's the one that rapes [REDACTED] up the ass. Poor dog.."

"In my opinion a dog is to Serve and Protect but if that dog bites you, it should get a bullet right in the f head. Just my opinion"

"I'm thinking we could do a citizen's arrest for somebody trespassing with a deadly weapon...I believe that's are right....? Isn't it? And don't say that I don't have the right to."

"I bet you if [REDACTED] was breaking into your home to molesting your children he be in jail.....You worthless scum bags"

"In my opinion there should be a bounty on you scumbags. F love seeing you faggots get killed on TV. In my opinion there should be a lot more you child molesting gang members dead but that's just my opinion and a lot of others."

"In my opinion a terminally ill person that has little time left should go after your gang. Just an opinion ;-)"

"In my opinion you should all get metal badges. Right in your brains and it should be made out of lead but that's just my opinion about you know good baby rapists"

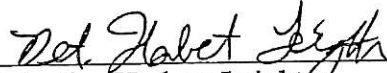

"Be careful you never know what could happen at a safety check" "I guess whatever happens. You had a heads up"

41. The Facebook Inc., record return confirmed the picture referred to previously in paragraph 22 of this affidavit send to the Kennebec County Sheriff's Office from the Facebook account of Nick Worthing with a colored picture of an adult male holding the hand of a young girl walking across a bridge away from the camera, and clearly holding a long gun in his left hand with barrel slung over his shoulder and a handgun tucked in to the back of his pants. The caption reads: "When they know they're your heart And you know you are their armor". This captioned picture was send with the message from Nick Worthing that "In my opinion if someone killed Eric verhille..it would be justified"
42. A search of the IP Addresses listed in the Facebook, Inc. warrant return indicate almost all connections the device that was used to connect to the internet to access the Facebook account of Nick Worthing was listed with an ISP belonging to Verizon Wireless. A subpoena has been served on Verizon Wireless.
43. Nicholas Worthing has a prior conviction for Violating a Protection Order on July 17, 2014, in AUGDC-CR-13-2311.
44. Based on the above facts, I have probable cause to believe that Nicholas J. Worthing, date of birth [REDACTED] who is more fully described as being 5'5", having blonde hair, hazel eyes, and weighing 135 pounds, has committed the crime of Stalking, in violation of 17-A MRSA § 210-A (1) (C), Class C.

Your affiant prays that an arrest warrant be issued for Nicholas Worthing.

I, Detective Herbert Leighton, hereby swear under oath that the information set forth in this affidavit is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information and belief, and that I make this oath under pains and penalties of perjury.

In January 2017, Troop C requested Troop D Tpr. Erin James to serve a summons for harassment by electronic device to Nicholas Worthing of Pittston. Tpr. Verhille assisted Tpr. James in serving the summons at the Worthing residence.

Nicholas Worthing met the troopers at the door and let them inside. The troopers told them the purpose of their visit was to serve a criminal summons on him. Worthing became uncooperative and belligerent and refused to sign the summons. The troopers explained he had to sign the summons as an acknowledgment of him receiving it and it was not in any way considered admitting to guilt to anything. They told him it was a crime to not sign the summons and he could be arrested if he chose to refuse to sign it.

Tr. James told Worthing she was leaving the summons on the table for him and he needed to be there for the court hearing date. Tpr. Verhille saw that Worthing saw the summons left on his counter. Tpr. Verhille said a decision had been made not to arrest Worthing for his refusal to sign the summons, knowing they could have arrested him.

Tpr. Verhille said they then left his residence when a short time later, the RCC told the troopers Worthing had called asking why troopers had been to his house. The troopers came back to the Worthing residence. Worthing met the troopers on his property and asked why they were there. Tpr. Verhille said they had been there to serve him a summons. Worthing told them he didn't know they served a summons and asked where it was.

Tpr. Verhille told Worthing he would make sure he got his summons. Worthing then told the troopers to leave his property. The troopers told him he needed to sign the summons first. Worthing then called 911 on what appeared to be his cordless phone then ran inside his house. The troopers followed him through the door and told him once again he needed to sign the summons.

Worthing refused to sign the summons then told the dispatcher the troopers were pointing their guns at him. Tpr. Verhille said at no point did either trooper point their gun at Worthing and told him so. The dispatcher wanted to know if the troopers were all set while Worthing screamed and yelled, not letting them talk and getting out of control.

The troopers then took him down to the ground and arrested him for refusing to sign the summons. Tpr. Verhille said at this point Worthing completely deescalated. Worthing was then transported to jail.

Tpr. Verhille estimates that 3 to 4 weeks later, Tpr. Verhille's wife, [REDACTED] received a message on Facebook Messenger. The message was received from the Facebook account from a person listed as "Nick Worthing".

The message to [REDACTED] read: "Question. Do you ever think that your husband being a low-life douchebag arresting a single father of his eight-year-old daughter on a summons that is complete bull shit. Might affect your life? Have a good night...".

Tpr. Verhille took a screenshot of this message and he told his supervisor, Sgt. Pat Hood. Sgt. Hood said he thought he also received a Facebook message from "Nicholas Worthing".

Approximately one month later, Tpr. Verhille's mother, [REDACTED], received a Facebook message from "Nicholas Worthing".

The message to [REDACTED] read: "Your sons a scum bag. Who is no good at his job. That low life broke in to my house, illegal home invasion.....In my opinion that's why there's so many cop shootings, is because of gang members like him. Fucking scum bag."

A couple months later, Tpr. Verhille's father, [REDACTED] received a Facebook message from "Nicholas Worthing".

Tpr. Verhille said his mother later received another Facebook message from "Nicholas Worthing" and his father received two more. This was sometime in June or July 2017. One of the messages talked about a girl in [REDACTED] who had recently been killed.

Tpr. Verhille said after several months of his family receiving continual threatening unsolicited messages, with no response from his family, with no sign of it stopping, he felt this was enough and something had to be done about it. END OF INTERVIEW

Sometime in May 2017, [REDACTED] received a Facebook message from "Nick Worthing". Alana read it then reread it then read it to her husband Eric. [REDACTED] asked Eric if they should be concerned about their children with this person because their children are always outside.

[REDACTED] didn't sleep that night. She said it was the first time in all the years her husband has been a police officer that someone he deals with at work actually was trying to seek out his family.

[REDACTED] said it was the first time she didn't feel safe and was scared and afraid for her children.

[REDACTED] has no idea who Nick Worthing is. The first message she received, he asked how it might affect her life and mentioned her children.

Eric took a screenshot and she deleted it from her phone. [REDACTED] never blocked him because she didn't want him to see she acknowledged receiving it. If she blocked him he would know that's what she did and that she must have read his message to her.

Sometime in August 2017, [REDACTED] heard Eric talking with his father [REDACTED], about receiving a message from Nick Worthing. Once she heard this, she checked her Facebook messages to see if she had received anything else from him.

[REDACTED] then discovered Nick Worthing had sent her a second message he sent her in June. This message said, "You got some cute kids. How would you feel if you had an armed home invasion for no reason?"

She received a third message from Nick Worthing on Friday, September 1st, 2017. This one talked about Eric not being able to rape the local girl who had been killed [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. END OF INTERVIEW

[REDACTED] was Nick Worthing's teacher in high school. This was at Gardiner High School at least 10 years ago. He was a trouble maker in school. Gary never had any conflict with him but he was constantly in trouble. Gary has known his parents for 40 years but hasn't had any contact with Nick Worthing since high school.

[REDACTED] heard his daughter-in-law, [REDACTED], had received a Facebook message from Nick Worthing. [REDACTED] was scared and didn't know if she should tell Eric because she didn't know how crazy this person was and afraid of an escalation if she told him. Gary's wife, [REDACTED], told [REDACTED] she should tell Eric.

[REDACTED] wife then told him she got a threatening Facebook message from Nick Worthing. [REDACTED] was upset and afraid Eric might get hurt, not knowing how crazy he might be. [REDACTED] saw this as a threat to his whole family. This may have been sometime in June 2017.

About the 3rd week in August 2017, [REDACTED] started receiving Facebook messages from Nick Worthing. These included: "Your sons going to lem...Sorry bout it // You got good looking grandchildren...schools starting soon // Your sons a no good child molester and I'm going to make sure everybody in this community knows what that scumbag is".

[REDACTED] said his stomach became upset when he read these messages. [REDACTED] felt the messages sent to his family were threatening and worried Nick Worthing might do something to his grandchildren, remembering the type of temper he had in high school.

[REDACTED] wondered what his wife, daughter-in-law and his grandchildren had to do with anything and was concerned why Worthing would seek his family out.

█████ said he was pretty upset and at one point thought about going to Nick Worthing's father about it but he told Eric instead.

█████ said it definitely was not a laughing matter to him and was and is concerned about what Nick Worthing might do to his family and why he was seeking them out. END OF INTERVIEW

Participants Nicholas Verhille, Det. Leighton

I read Nicholas "Nick" Worthing his Miranda rights. He explained his understanding of his Miranda rights then waived his rights and consented to be interviewed.

Nick said Tpr. Verhille came to see him concerning harassment involving Fowler Roofing.

Nick didn't see where there was any complaint as all the person had to do was block him on Facebook. An officer told Nick not to talk with the guy from Fowler Roofing but then the guy talked to Nick so Nick said he thought it was all good.

The next day, Tpr. Erin James and Tpr. Verhille told Nick he was getting a summons for harassing the Fowler Roofing guy. Tpr. James was the lead investigator.

Nick told the troopers he didn't need to sign the summons. Nick tried writing the trooper's names then Tpr. Verhille started running his mouth. Nick couldn't get why he was running his mouth. The troopers left and he couldn't find the summons. Nick wanted them to look at his phone.

Nick said he was being drunk and belligerent with the troopers. Nick had Tpr. Verhille's father as a teacher. The father tried to help Nick but then his son was complaining about Nick's spelling.

Nick said that's what upset him, Tpr. Verhille complaining about Nick's spelling. Nick called dispatch and was drunk and belligerent. Nick called the sergeant who told Nick he was going to show up but the sergeant lied to Nick and sent Eric instead.

Eric's sergeant is an officer and shouldn't lie. He's supposed to set an example to the public. That bothered Nick that the sergeant lied to him.

Nick told dispatch he didn't want Eric Verhille back at his residence and that there was no need for him to be aggressive because he spelled Eric's name wrong.

Eric showed up and Nick told Eric to get the fuck off his property. Nick said it was his right not to have Eric on his property and called 911. Sgt. Hood had told Nick he was going to see him, not Eric. The troopers arrived and pushed their way in his residence.

The troopers were flipping out asking Nick where the summons was. Eric put Nick in a corner and threw him on the floor and kneed him in the back. Nick said this is all on 911 and isn't good. Eric told him Nick flexed and that's why he took Nick down.

Nick said, "Dude, that's just a reaction people have being arrested". Nick didn't get Eric's aggressive behavior and told him so. Eric has a dog named Clint and they talked about the dog and fishing on the way to jail.

Nick said he bitched on the Maine State Police Facebook Messenger and they blocked him. Nick said he then bitched at Kennebec SO over this person he didn't want breaking into his home.

Nick said he called Public Safety specifically to keep him out of Nick's house. Nick told Sgt. Hood he didn't want Eric at his house. Sgt. Hood said he'd come but he didn't and lied and sent the one person in the country Nick said he didn't want at his house. Nick said he didn't want him there.

Nick said that's why he had problems because he ran his mouth because he was mad.

Nick said really what he was saying was he's frustrated

Nick said it wasn't like he was going to do anything but his emotions got the best of him then he runs his mouth and gets in trouble.

Nick is fearful when he drives his car at night because he ran his mouth and the cops will shoot him.

Nick said when he posted the messages he used his cellphone using "Messenger". Nick said it used to be called Facebook then Messenger which Nick thinks is still tied into Facebook.

Nick looks up who he wants to message then he writes something and sends it. The person receiving his message can decide whether or not they want to read it and if they want to block him.

Nick sent messages to Kennebec SO because they harass him by parking at the smelt camps, which is his and his father's business. Nick and his father have told them they are being dinks about it saying they can be on public property. They told Kennebec SO that's fine but don't hide behind our building.

Nick said he wrote things which weren't nice. Nick said in his opinion they should die because he didn't feel safe. Nick said to look at the news because the police shoot people.

Nick said he's dealt with [REDACTED]

Nick said he wasn't saying he was going to do something, it was just his opinion. He said he doesn't feel protected and scared the police were going to pull him over for anything, harass him and break into his house. Nick said again he wasn't going to do anything and just wanted to be left alone.

Nick said he just wanted an apology and thinks Eric should be charged with something.

Nick said he probably shouldn't be contacting Eric's wife and mom and dad because he likened it to church, you should just let it go. Nick wanted closure and was just trying to bitch and get it out of him.

Nick tried to reach Eric through Facebook Messenger but couldn't because his name never came back. Nick said he then searched for the name "Verhille" and then saw the other names.

Nick said he bitched to them because he was hurting. Nick said he did wrong by doing that and shouldn't have messaged the Verhille's because of the bible thing, you gotta let go of the anger.

Nick said when he couldn't reach Eric, he messaged his family to get someone to apologize.

Nick said when he sent messages on Facebook it was always from his cellphone. He doesn't know if the carrier is Verizon or not because it's pay as you go. He said his daughter is the one that mostly uses the laptop even though Nick's the administrator.

Nick said his cellphone number is [REDACTED]. He said he's had this phone since March/April 2017 and had a different cellphone before that.

Nick said he never lent his cellphone to anyone other than his young daughter, [REDACTED] Worthing, but he said [REDACTED] obviously doesn't text from his cellphone. Nick said it was only him that sent the messages. He said he did not know his passcode. END OF INTERVIEW

Go get a real job. don't be so lazy. The workingman's sick and tired of working to support your f welfare check. scum. Worthless as tris on a bull

Decline

Accept

JAN 8TH, 8:37PM

If you scumbags did your jobs right. You wouldn't be pulling over hard working people for no factual reasons. I'd have more respect for you if you pulled over these no-good druggies. if you guys are doing your jobs right there wouldn't be a average of one person dying a day in Maine... You're pretty much just leeches living off welfare from the hard-working ppl... You lowlifes couldn't even do a day of physical labor work if you had to.

JAN 9TH, 6:04AM

Pretty bad you guys are liars and you can't even get your story straight. That retarded Sergeant I talk to about the no-good low-life piece of s Deputy Moody. Said " he pulled you over because when he ran the plate it came back as somebody with a suspended license". Bull shit!!!! Fucking lie!!! I don't even think he had a chance to run the plate. if he did do his job, it would have came back as my little man who most definitely does have his license. stupid fuck. In my opinion you should get rid of those no-good low-life Sheriffs that don't know how to do their job and they're no good lying sergeants too. I wish the sheriff's department was an organisation that I like but when they harass the public for no reason. no facts whatsoever.. Fucking bull.. Why don't you put your work towards the drug appademic.

*my old mans truck... Thing sticks out like a sore thumb, 1972 Chevy pickup. tool box, saw box and a diesel pump in the back of it. It says LePage for president on the back of the tailgate . I pulled out of the Smeit Camps. there's so many reasons right there why you guys are dumb Fucks

Druggies , child molesters and the Kennebec County Sheriff's Office are all about the same in my opinion. There no fucking good. One of the big things that bothers me is that we support your lazy asses

JAN 11TH, 6:06AM

Good morning fuckers. Off to support your lazy asses. while you guys are out harassing the community. The worst gang that we have around, you guys... Train to murder people and get it called Justified.. Low lifes!!!

JAN 12TH, 9:55PM

My 17 year old girls best friend dad died...over doused. ... Are you guys doing a good job. Nope. ... I guess that's where my anger comes from. are you guys doing a good job? Maybe you should look in that little girls crying eyes... That's the end for me. just leave me alone not breaking the law. I don't need to be harassed. do a better job

JAN 25TH, 6:08AM

What happens when the people that are forced to finance your gang are fed up..? 🤔

JAN 25TH, 6:24PM

...? Theres alot of ppl not happy.. Hello?.. We know your homes.. Like you, like your gang like to attack us at..... Question. How would your kids feel of people showing up at your house...? Just a question because you douchebags would do it to us... Have a good night

JAN 28TH, 7:28AM

If you guys like to arrest me today be a good day. I wouldn't mind taking a vacation for a month or so.. Just give me a holler so I know. I mean a phone call, I don't mind

I guess ill start drinking

That normally brings you around he he he hehehehe;)

You no-good low-life don't show up I'm going to have to go to work. pricks supporting your f gang

Remember to feed the chickens... Them roosters are dicks, so look out ha..u can eat them i dont mind. Just leave the one hen with a broke lag. [REDACTED] kind likes that one

APR 8TH, 3:31PM

It's gangs like you that killed Jesus.. Think about it. The people in power like you called it Justified..

MAY 28TH, 7:26AM

Man all these cop shootings I see on TV. Citizens must be getting sick of the way cops are being gang members. I even had offices do a home invasion on me for no reason. let's see if I get Justice your way or my way. I'm still waiting for you guys. But I doubt you'll even try to get me Justice, instead you'll come after me like a gang. Do you wonder why people call you lowlifes scum. All I am is a single dad trying to be a good parent to my daughter and you fucks harass me for no reason

MAY 29TH, 6:20PM

Break into my house with no justified reason and there was no reason. Just ignorance. why don't you go take out the f druggies around. "we can't just break into people's houses." You did it to me cunt heads!

Fuck you low lifes!

Most of this recent stuff is because of that no-good low-life Eric verhill. he's a state cop but all you lowlifes are all the same

I guess whatever happens. you had a heads up

THU 9:55PM

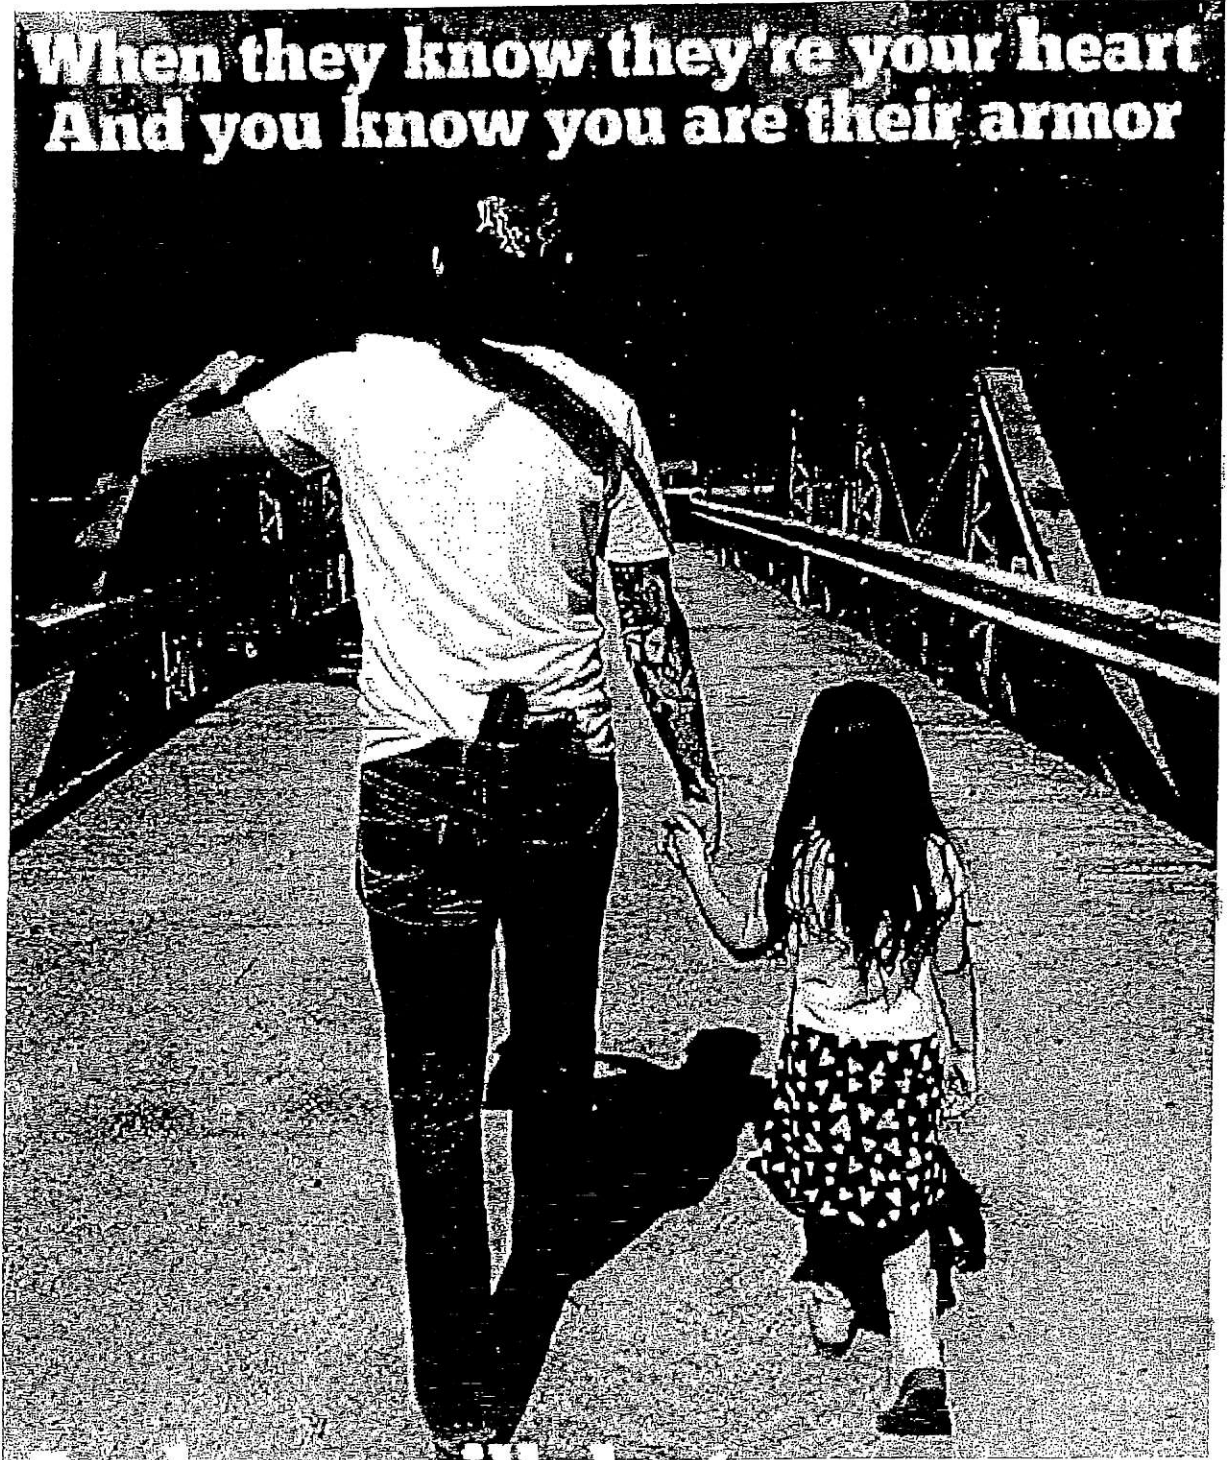

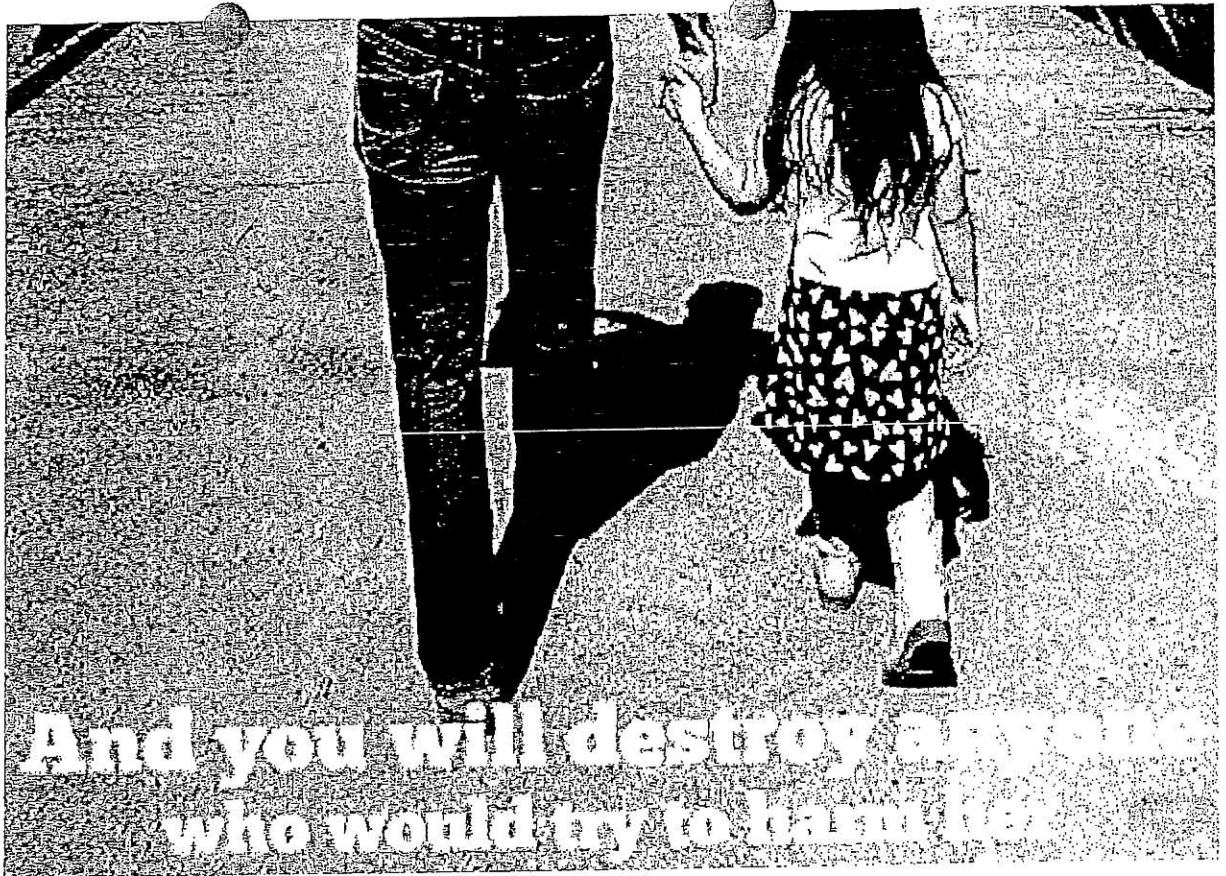

Be careful you never know what could happen at a safety check

Nick Worthing

In my opinion if someone killed Eric verhille.. It would be justified but I know that's just in my opinion.... I'm just a daddy trying to protect his daughter but with scumbags like you out there... Idk...

And you lowlifes trespass at the Smelt Camps again. You've been told time and time again, your gang is not allowed on that property. there you are again breaking the law. scumbags. There was no reason to be there. if you wanted to contact me that's what this is for or just call me retards. We'd like to see charges on the officer that trespassed

And don't say that I don't have the right to. The owner of the property that has told you many times not to be on his property would love to see you scumbags get charged. sick of supporting you lowlifes.

I'm thinking we could do a citizen's arrest for somebody trespassing with a deadly weapon... I believe that's are right....? Isn't it?

JAN 27TH 9 37PM

If you scumbags did your jobs right. You wouldn't be pulling over hard working people for no factual reasons. I'd have more respect for you if you pulled over these no-good druggies. if you guys are doing your jobs right there wouldn't be a average of one person dying a day in Maine... You're pretty much just leeches living off welfare from the hard-working ppl... You lowlifes couldn't even do a day of physical labor work if you had to.

JAN 27TH 8 34AM

Pretty bad you guys are liars and you can't even get your story straight. That retarded Sergeant I talk to about the no-good low-life piece of s Deputy Moody. Said " he pulled you over because when he ran the plate it came back as somebody with a suspended license". Bull shit!!!! Fucking hell I don't even think he had a chance to run the plate. if he did do his job, it would have come back as my little man who most definitely does have his license stupid fuck. In my opinion you should get rid of those no-good low-life Sheriffs that don't know how to do their job and they're no good lying sergeants too. I wish the sheriff's department was an organisation that I like but when they harass the public for no reason. no facts whatsoever. Fucking bull. Why don't you put your work towards the drug appademic.

My old mans truck... Thing sticks out like a sore thumb. 1972 Chevy pickup. tool box, saw box and a diesel pump in the back of it. It says LePage for president on the back of the tailgate... I pulled out of the Smell Camps. there's so many reasons right there why you guys are dumb.

Fucks

JAN 27TH 8 42AM

Druggies, child molesters and the Kennebec County Sheriff's Office are all about the same in my opinion. There no fucking good. One of the big things that bothers me is that we support your lazy asses

JAN 13TH 6 56PM

My 11 year old girls best friend dad died... over doused... Are you guys doing a good job. Nope. I guess that's where my anger comes from. are you guys doing a good job? Maybe you should look in that little girls crying eyes... That's the end for me. just leave me alone not breaking the law. I don't need to be harassed. do a better job

JAN 13TH 6 56PM

What happens when the people that are forced to finance your gang are fed up. ?

JAN 13TH 7 24AM

? ... Theres alot of ppl not happy.. Hello?.. We know your homes.. Like you, like your gang like to attack us at... Question. How would your kids feel of people showing up at your house...? Just a question because you douchebags would do it to us... Have a good night

JAN 13TH 7 24AM

If you guys like to arrest me today be a good day. I wouldn't mind taking a vacation for a month or so. Just give me a holler so I know. I mean a phone call. I don't mind

I guess ill start drinking

That normally brings you around ha ha he hehehehe.)

APR 25TH 1:34PM

It's gangs like you that killed Jesus.. Think about it. The people in power like you called it Justified.

MAY 27TH 7:26AM

Man all these cop shootings I see on TV. Citizens must be getting sick of the way cops are being gang members. I even had offices do a home invasion on me for no reason.. let's see if I get Justice your way or my way. I'm still waiting for you guys. But I doubt you'll even try to get me Justice, instead you'll come after me like a gang. Do you wonder why people call you lowlifes scum. All I am is a single dad trying to be a good parent to my daughter and you fucks harass me for no reason.

MAY 28TH 8:21PM

Break into my house with no justified reason and there was no reason. Just ignorance. why don't you go take out the ~~fuck~~ druggies around. "we can't just break into people's houses." You did it to me cunt heads!

Fuck you low lifes!

Most of this recent stuff is because of that no-good low-life Eric vertall. he's a state cop but all you lowlifes are all the same

Do you help [redacted] rape children? I bet [redacted] holds them down... Scumbags!

SEP 15T 10 44AM

Well I guess I'm the positive it's one last rape victim for you scumbags

SEP 3RD 7 02PM

In my opinion you people should go get a real jobs. The publics sick of support your asses. All your checks are welfare because you're too lazy to go get a real f job. Scumbags. Why don't you go take down that [redacted] who does armed home invasions for no f reason.

[redacted] is the one that rapes [redacted] up the ass. Poor dog..

SEP 12TH 7 26PM

In my opinion a terminally ill person that has little time left should go after your gang. Just an opinion :-

WED 5/01AM

In my opinion there should be a bounty on you scumbags. Well I think it's in a lot of people's opinion. We're sick of supporting your f welfare checks, all you are is a bunch of scumbags that harass a working man. I have no respect for you douchebags. I love seeing you faggets get jailed on TV. In my opinion there should be a lot more you child molesting gang members dead but that's just my opinion and a lot of others. You have lost the respect of the public

I think there might be a child molester at the Pittston school he's driving a car [REDACTED] on the license plate

Blue ford

Maybe I should notify the school

I'm thinking we should write in everything single smelt Camp how in our opinion [REDACTED] is a child molester and the scumbag Kennecott County Sheriff's Department is okay with that. They even let him go to the elementary schools. These child molesting gangs must be shut down.

Actually why wait this is a good

SEARCH WARRANT

To any officer authorized by law to execute this search warrant:

On the basis of the application and affidavit of Detective Herbert Leighton of the Maine State Police Major Crimes Unit dated 11/14/2017, which is attached to the original hereof to be filed with the District Court, I am satisfied that there is probable cause to believe that there are grounds for the issuance of a search warrant. You are therefore commanded to search the property/premises described in Part I below for the property/evidence described in Part II below, and if the property/evidence described in Part II below is found, to seize such property/evidence and prepare a written inventory to be filed with the District Court within fourteen days.

Part I: Property/Residence to be searched:

1. 14 Worthing Road, Pittston, Maine. The residence is a white single-wide mobile home with a wooden deck. The mobile home is located at the end of the bifurcated portion of Worthing Road, a dirt road off from Rt. 27 (Wiscasset Road). The residence is occupied by Nicholas Worthing (D.O.B. [REDACTED]).
2. Any vehicles located at the residence belonging to or under the control of any residents of 14 Worthing Road, Pittston, Maine.
3. Any outbuildings associated with the residence at 14 Pittston, Maine.
4. The person of Nicholas Worthing (DOB: [REDACTED]) of 14 Worthing Road, Pittston, Maine. Nicholas Worthing is listed on his Maine Driver's License as a white adult male, 5'5", 135 pounds, with blonde hair and hazel eyes.

Signed by Judge

Part II: Property/Evidence to be seized:

Based upon the affidavit, there is probable cause to believe the following item(s) either contain evidence of or themselves constitute instrumentalities of the offense(s) of Stalking in violation of 17-A M.R.S. § 210-A, and should therefore be seized:

1. The following property to be seized from 14 Worthing Road, Pittston, Maine:
 - i. Computers, portable electronic devices and digital storage media of any kind. As used both above and below, the terms “computers, portable electronic devices and digital storage media” include any electronic system or device capable of storing and/or processing data in digital form, including: central processing units; laptops, tablets or notebook computers; personal digital assistants; wireless communication devices such as telephone paging devices, beepers, and cellular telephones; peripheral input/output devices such as keyboards, printers, scanners, plotters, monitors, and drives intended for removal media; related communications devices such as modem, cables, and connections; storage media such as hard disk drivers, floppy disks, thumb drives, magnetic tapes, and memory chips; and security devices;
 - ii. Records in any form indicative of occupancy or ownership of the premises described in the search warrant (the Premises);
 - iii. Records or images in any form that indicate ownership or use of computers, portable electronic devices, digital storage media, camera or imaging equipment found in the Premises.
2. To further search the computers, portable electronic devices and digital storage media seized during the search of 14 Worthing Road, Pittston, Maine for the following:
 - i. Any records or images related to the crime of Stalking, including those targeting the family of Maine State Police Trooper Eric Verhille.
 - ii. Records in any form indicative of occupancy or ownership of the premises described in the search warrant (the Premises);
 - iii. Records or images in any form that indicate ownership or use of computers, portable electronic devices, digital storage media, camera or imaging equipment found in the Premises.

All of which constitute evidence of the crime of Stalking in violation of 17-A M.R.S. § 210-A.

In the event computers, portable electronic devices or electronic data storage devices are in fact seized, this warrant additionally authorizes their examination by a trained forensic examiner from the Maine State Police Computer Crimes Unit, or any other State or federal law enforcement agency qualified to do so, either at the place of seizure or upon removal of the equipment to a forensic lab, or both. It is further authorized that civilian employees of the Maine Department of Public Safety or any law enforcement agency may assist in the execution of this warrant.

DAYTIME WARRANT ONLY

This warrant shall be executed between the hours of 7:00 A.M. and 9:00 P.M., and shall be returned, together with a written inventory, within 14 days of the issuance hereof, to the Maine Unified Criminal Court located in Augusta, Maine.

EITHER NIGHTTIME OR DAYTIME SEARCH WARRANT

For reasonable cause shown in the affidavit(s)/evidence, this warrant may be executed in the daytime or in the nighttime (9:00 PM to 7:00 AM) and shall be returned, together with a written inventory, within 14 days of the issuance hereof, to the Maine Unified Criminal Court located in Augusta, Maine.

UNANNOUNCED EXECUTION OF SEARCH WARRANT

For reasonable cause shown, this warrant may be executed by an officer without providing notice of the officer's purpose and office.

 - ii. Records in any form indicative of occupancy or ownership of the premises described in the search warrant (the Premises);
 - iii. Records or images in any form that indicate ownership or use of computers, portable electronic devices, digital storage media, camera or imaging equipment found in the Premises.

2. To further search the computers, portable electronic devices and digital storage media seized during the search of 14 Worthing Road, Pittston, Maine for the following:
 - i. Any records or images related to the crime of Stalking, including those targeting the family of Maine State Police Trooper Eric Verhille.
 - ii. Records in any form indicative of occupancy or ownership of the premises described in the search warrant (the Premises);
 - iii. Records or images in any form that indicate ownership or use of computers, portable electronic devices, digital storage media, camera or imaging equipment found in the Premises.

All of which constitute evidence of the crime of Stalking in violation of 17-A M.R.S. § 210-A.

III. My conclusion that such probable cause exists is based on the following factual information:

1. I, Herbert Leighton, Detective for the Maine State Police Major Crimes Unit, make this affidavit in support of an application for a search and seizure warrant under Title 17-A, Chapter 3, Subchapters 10 & 11 as well as Rule 41B of the Maine Rules of Unified Criminal Procedure.
2. This affidavit is intended to show that there is sufficient probable cause for the requested search and seizure warrant and does not set forth all of my knowledge about this matter. The statements contained in this affidavit are based upon the following: my own personal knowledge; knowledge obtained from other individuals during my participation in this investigation, including other law enforcement officers; my review of records related to this investigation; communications with others who have knowledge of the events and circumstances described herein; and information gained through my training and experience.
3. On September 14th, 2017 I spoke with Eric Verhille, employed as a Maine State Police Trooper. He told me that on a day in January, 2017, he and another trooper went to serve a criminal summons on Nicholas Worthing, date of birth: [REDACTED] at Nicholas Worthing's residence, 14 Worthing Road in Pittston, for the crime of Stalking (in relation to a separate matter). Tpr. Verhille described the stalking incident as "Cyber-Stalking", commonly known as repeatedly using electronic communications to harass, frighten and/or threaten someone.
4. Tpr. Verhille said Worthing refused to sign the criminal summons. Worthing was told the signature was only an acknowledgment of receipt of the summons, that it was legally required and was a separate arrestable offense for refusing to sign the summons. Worthing continued to refuse to sign the summons. Tpr. Verhille said he and his fellow trooper made the decision not to arrest Worthing, but left the summons on his table and told him what the summons was for and his court date.

5. Tpr. Verhille said a short time later, dispatchers told him Nicholas Worthing had just called, wanting to know why State Troopers were at his residence. Tpr. Verhille said he and the fellow trooper responded back to the Worthing residence, to find Worthing outside screaming at them to leave his property immediately. The troopers told Worthing they came back to re-summons him for the crime of Stalking and that he needed to sign the summons. Worthing dialed 911 from his cordless phone then ran inside his residence. The troopers followed him inside and told Worthing once again he needed to sign the summons.

6. Once inside, Worthing told the dispatcher on the line the troopers were pointing a gun at him. Tpr. Verhille said at no point did anyone point guns at Worthing. Worthing still refused to sign the summons and was arrested for refusing to sign.

"Question. Do you ever think that your husband being a low-life douchebag arresting a single father of his eight-year-old daughter on a summons that is complete bull shit. Might affect your life? Have a good night..."

8. On September 20th, 2017 I interviewed [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] said she received the Facebook message from "Nick Worthing" sometime in May, 2017. She said she had never heard of a Nick Worthing. She read the message "Nick Worthing" sent to her a few times trying to understand it and why she was asked why it might affect her life. [REDACTED] said it was the first time as a police officer's wife she didn't feel safe for her family as it was the first time anyone from her husband's work had ever tried to seek out her family. She asked her husband if she should be concerned and said she didn't sleep that night because she felt scared and afraid for her children and her family. [REDACTED] said her husband took a screenshot of the post.

9. On September 20th, 2017 I interviewed [REDACTED], mother of Tpr. Eric Verhille. [REDACTED] said she received a Facebook message from "Nick Worthing" which read: "Your sons a scum bag. Who is no good at his job. That low life broke in to my house, illegal home invasion.....In my opinion that's why there's so many cop shootings, is because of gang members like him. Fucking scum bag." After reading the message, [REDACTED] said she was scared and didn't know why someone would write this to her. [REDACTED] said she was scared for her son. [REDACTED] said she took a screenshot of the message.
10. On September 20th, 2017, I interviewed [REDACTED], father of Tpr. Eric Verhille. [REDACTED] said he first heard of Facebook messages from "Nick Worthing" being sent to his family from his daughter-in-law, [REDACTED], who confided to him she was scared and didn't know if she should tell her husband for fear of an escalation occurring if he were to learn what "Nick Worthing" wrote to her. [REDACTED] said his wife [REDACTED], was the second person in his family to receive a message from "Nick Worthing." [REDACTED] said his wife was upset and afraid their son might get hurt not knowing how crazy the person might be.
11. [REDACTED] said he thought the Facebook message sent to his wife from "Nick Worthing" was sent sometime in June 2017. [REDACTED] said he received 3 Facebook messages from "Nick Worthing" in a short time span sometime the third week of August 2017. The messages together read: "Your sons going to lern...Sorry bout it // You got good looking grandchildren....schools starting soon // Your sons a no good child molester and I'm going to make sure everybody in this community knows what that scumbag is".
12. [REDACTED] remembered Nick Worthing from at least 10 years ago where [REDACTED] was a teacher at Gardner High School when Nick was a student there. The only thing [REDACTED] remembered about Nick was he was a trouble-maker and had a temper. [REDACTED] remembered no specific conflict between himself and Nick Worthing and has had no contact with him since high school.

13. ██████ said his stomach became upset when he read these messages from "Nick Worthing" on his Facebook account. ██████ felt the messages sent to his family were threatening and worried he might do something to his grandchildren, remembering the type of temper he had in high school. ██████ wondered what his wife, daughter-in-law and his grandchildren had to do with anything and continues to be concerned why this individual would seek his family out.
14. In my interview with ██████ on September 20th, 2017, she said once she learned her father-in-law had received a Facebook message from "Nick Worthing", she checked her Facebook account to see if any more messages had come in. ██████ said she then read a new message from "Nick Worthing", that had been sent on June 28th, 2017, which read: "You got some cute kids. How would you feel if you had a armed home invasion for no reason?.....".
15. ██████ said she received a third Facebook message from "Nick Worthing", which was sent on Friday, September 1st, 2017. The message read: "Not the heck well I guess it's a positive thing that high school student died. at least Eric can't rape her". Tpr. Verhille told me the high school student referred to in the message was ██████, of ██████ Maine, who died ██████ on August, 31st, 2017.
16. On September 14th, 2017, an email was forwarded to this affiant that was originally sent to members of the Kennebec County Sheriff's Office from Kennebec County Sheriff's Office Criminal Intelligence Analyst Randall Parker on August 30th, 2017. Analyst Parker listed screenshots of posts Nick Worthing posted on the Kennebec County Sheriff's Office Facebook page between January through August 2017. A January 25th, 2017 post read: "..?...There's a lot of ppl not happy...Hello?...We know your homes.. Like your gang like to attack us" at...Question. How would your kids feel of people showing up at your house...? Just a question because you douchebags would do it to us...Have a good night".

17. A May 29th, 2017 post sent by Nick Worthing to the Kennebec County Sheriff's Office read: "Break into my house with no justified reason and there was no reason. Just ignorance. Why don't you go take out the f druggies around. "we can't just break into people's houses." You did it to me cunt heads! Fuck you low lifes! Most of this recent stuff is because of that no-good low-life Eric verhill. he's a state cop but all you lowlife's are all the same. I guess whatever happens. You had a heads up".
18. The final post Nick Worthing sent to the Kennebec County Sheriff's Office Facebook page read: "Be careful you never know what could happen at a safety check".
19. On September 15th, 2017, Facebook, Inc., confirmed receipt of a Preservation Request to preserve the Facebook account of "Nick Worthing" and the listed URL (web address) connected to the account. Facebook, Inc. stated they would take reasonable steps to preserve the account for 90 days.
20. A URL is a uniform resource locator, abbreviated as URL (also known as web address, particularly when used with HTTP), is a specific character string that constitutes a reference to a resource. In most web browsers, the URL of a web page is displayed on top, inside an address bar. An example of a typical URL would be "http://en.example.org/wiki/Main_Page".
21. On September 25th, 2017, I received a document from Maine State Police Troop D Commander, Lt. Aaron Hayden, of Facebook messages sent to the Facebook account of the Kennebec County Sheriff's Department from "Nick Worthing". One message read: "In my opinion if someone killed Eric verhille..It would be justified but I know that's just in my opinion....I'm just a daddy trying to protect his daughter but with scumbags like you out there...Idk...". Directly below this message was a picture of an adult male holding hands with a young girl, walking away from the camera, with a handgun tucked in the back waist area of the man, with what looks like a rifle strap on his back. The caption to the picture read: "When they know they're your heart And you know you are their armor

And you will destroy anyone who would try to harm her". Below this post was an illustration of a large thumb's up from "Nick Worthing".

22. Another message listed in this document from "Nick Worthing", posted to the Facebook account of the Kennebec County Sheriff's Department talked about police officers trespassing "at the Smelt Camps". "Nick Worthing" wrote: "I'm thinking we could do a citizen's arrest for somebody trespassing with a deadly weapon...I believe that's are right...? Isn't it?". A third message read: "In my opinion a dog is to Serve and Protect but if that dog bites you, it should get a bullet right in the f head.. Just my opinion". This was followed by a Smiley Face with a wink.
23. On September 25th, I received a document from Katharine England from the Maine Department of Public Safety. The document included several messages sent to the Facebook account of the Maine State Police from "Nick Worthing" from June 14th, 2017 to June 19th, 2017. The messages open with: "Scum bags do your fucking job arrest at low life verhill for doing an illegal home invasion...Or are you just a gang that the public should rise up against?" After a series of posts, "Nick Worthing" writes: "Question. Am I able to go do my own citizen's arrest? What's required to do that? Since your game does not want to fallow the law...". "In my opinion if someone did an armed home invasion, that person should be in jail.....". "And in my opinion this is why you see the stuff that happens to Cops on TV".
24. "Nick Worthing" continues on then writes: "Cant say i didnt try to talk this out...Whatever happens happens..Just know I felt threatened for my life and my daughters with criminals breaking in to my home".
25. Lt. Aaron Hayden told me that, as a result of the messages "Nick Worthing" posted to the Maine State Police Facebook account, the Facebook account of "Nick Worthing" has been blocked. Lt. Hayden said to date, "Nick Worthing" has been the only account blocked on the Maine State Police Facebook page since its inception.
26. Facebook, Inc., returned records as required from a search warrant signed by Superior Court Deputy Chief Justice Robert Mullen on October 15th, 2017. Facebook records indicate the Facebook account of [REDACTED] is listed to "Nick Worthing", DOB: [REDACTED] with "Gardiner Area High School" listed under his education. Gardiner Area High School is located near Pittston, Maine, at 40 W Hill Road, Gardiner, Maine. The "Vanity Name" was listed as "nick.worthing.5", the email address as [REDACTED] and phone number listed as: "+[REDACTED] Cell Verified on 2013-07-14 18:16:32 UTC".

"I'm thinking we could do a citizen's arrest for somebody trespassing with a deadly weapon...I believe that's are right....? Isn't it? And don't say that I don't have the right to."

"I bet you if Eric verhill was breaking into your home to molesting your children he be in jail.....You worthless scum bags"

"In my opinion there should be a bounty on you scumbags. I love seeing you faggots get killed on TV. In my opinion there should be a lot more you child molesting gang members dead but that's just my opinion and a lot of others."

"In my opinion a terminally ill person that has little time left should go after your gang. Just an opinion ;-)"

“Be careful you never know what could happen at a safety check” “I guess whatever happens. You had a heads up”

38. The Facebook Inc., record return confirmed the picture referred to previously in this affidavit send to the Kennebec County Sheriff’s Office from the Facebook account of Nick Worthing with a colored picture of an adult male holding the hand of a young girl walking across a bridge away from the camera, and clearly holding a long gun in his left hand with barrel slung over his shoulder and a handgun tucked in to the back of his pants. The caption reads: “When they know they’re your heart And you know you are their armor”. This captioned picture was send with the message from Nick Worthing that “In my opinion if someone killed Eric verhille..it would be justified”
39. A search of the IP Addresses listed in the Facebook, Inc. warrant return indicate almost all connections the device that was used to connect to the internet to access the Facebook account of Nick Worthing was listed with an ISP belonging to Verizon Wireless.

IV. My education, training and experience may be summarized as follows:

I have been a Maine law enforcement officer since 1985, a sworn member of the Maine State Police since 1988 and a detective with the State Police Major Crimes Unit since February 1995. I am a founding member of the Maine State Police Evidence Response Team, having held the position of Team Commander from 2004 to 2015 when I retired from the team. I continue to maintain a forensic specialty in Bloodstain Pattern Analysis/Crime Scene Reconstruction since 1997 and am the founding member of the Maine State Police Bloodstain Pattern Analysis Program.

V. Based on my education, training and experience, and the facts set forth in this affidavit, there is probable cause to believe, and I do believe, the following:

1. That a computer, portable electronic device or other digital media with the ability to access the internet or store media files is located at the residence at 14 Worthing Road, Pittston, Maine, as described above in Part I, and was recently used to commit the crime of Stalking in violation of 17-A M.R.S.A. § 210-A.

2. That the residence at 14 Worthing Road, Pittston, Maine, as described above in Part I, contains computers, portable electronic devices and computer-related equipment, as described above in Part II, that were used as instrumentalities in, and that contain evidence of, the commission of the crimes of possession and dissemination of sexually explicit material.

3. That careful off-site forensic examination of a computer, portable electronic devices or other electronic data storage device by a trained examiner in a forensic laboratory, such as those maintained by the Maine State Police Computer Crimes Unit, will result in the recovery of electronic data that has been stored on the computer, even if the data was not intentionally stored, was deleted, was password-protected or encrypted, and often even if the computer itself has been damaged.

4. That forensic examination of electronic data may require the use of software and/or written materials regarding the computer equipment and software that were used to store or retrieve the data, including owner's manuals, computer reference books, guides, written notes, and recorded passwords.

5. That such recoverable electronic data includes the P2P software, Internet history (including internet browser history, search engine history, temporary internet files), electronic communications (such as email and email attachments, chat room communications, writings created on word processing software, notepads, etc.), stored data files and folders, graphic visual images (such as photographs, movie clips and scanned images), personal calendars or diaries, and any other electronic data that demonstrates the identity of the person who exercised dominion or control over the computer or its contents.

6. That such electronically stored data may also exist in the form of paper printouts or stored on digital storage media.

7. If at the time of the execution of the approved search warrant, the residents of 14 Worthing Road, Pittston, Maine are not present, attempts to notify will be made. Any residents who do arrive will be searched pursuant to the warrant.

8. I spoke with Maine State Police Sergeant Christopher Tupper, of the Maine State Police Computer Crimes Unit, who reviewed this affidavit and told me there may be evidence and/or artifacts linking electronic devices to the Facebook account of Nicholas Worthing and the crime of Stalking in violation of 17-A M.R.S.A. § 210-A.

9. This affidavit was reviewed by Assistant District Attorney Alisa Ross with the Kennebec County District Attorney's Office.

WHEREFORE, I pray that a warrant may issue authorizing a search of the Property/Premises described above in Part I for the Property/Evidence described above in Part II, and that if such Property/Evidence be found that it shall be seized.

I further request that this warrant authorize the subsequent examination of the contents of any seized computer equipment by the Maine State Police Computer Crimes Unit, or any other State or federal law enforcement agency qualified to do so, and that it authorize the assistance of civilian employees of the Maine Department of Public Safety assigned to the Maine State Police Computer Crimes Unit.

I hereby swear under pains and penalties of perjury that the facts set forth in this affidavit are true and correct to the best of my information and belief.

(3) destruction of or tampering with evidence,

_____ (4) intimidation of a potential witness,

_____ (5) potentially jeopardizing an investigation, or (6) undue delay of a trial.

Waiver of Notice to Owner or User of Electronic Device. Based on the facts set forth in the affidavit, and pursuant to M.R.U. Crim. P. 41B(c) & (d) and 16 M.R.S. §§ 643(2) & 649(2), the court order that the notification ordinarily required under 16 M.R.S. §§ 643 & 649 is waived, based on the determination that such disclosure would have an adverse result, for the reasons marked below:

_____ (1) immediate danger of death or serious physical injury,

_____ (2) flight from prosecution,

(3) destruction of or tampering with evidence,

_____ (4) intimidation of a potential witness,

_____ (5) potentially jeopardizing an investigation, or (6) undue delay of a trial.

The Court further orders that Facebook, Inc. shall disclose all responsive data, if any, by sending it to Detective Herbert Leighton, Maine State Police Major Crimes Unit, 1 Game Farm Road, Gray ME, 04039 using his State of Maine employment email address at:

herbert.m.leighton@maine.gov, notwithstanding 18 U.S.C. § 2252A or similar statute or code.

The court further orders that civilian employees of Facebook, Inc., are authorized to assist in this search warrant. It is further authorized that in the event that the material provided may be examined by a trained forensic examiner from the Maine State Police Computer Crimes Unit, or any other State or federal law enforcement agency qualified to do so.

The Court also orders, pursuant to 16 M.R.S. §56, that the Court order that Facebook, Inc. verify the authenticity of records that it produces by providing an affidavit that complies with the requirements set forth in the Maine Rules of Evidence, Rule 902(12).

Pursuant to 16 M.R.S. § 56, FACEBOOK, INC. IS REQUIRED TO PROVIDE RESULTS WITHIN 14 DAYS. If the provider cannot make that timeline, it is to provide written notice with “good cause” to the Detective so the court can be notified and determine if “good cause” has been provided to extend the time for the response.

DAYTIME WARRANT ONLY

This warrant shall be executed between the hours of 7:00 A.M. and 9:00 P.M., and shall be returned, together with a written inventory, within 14 days of the issuance hereof, to the Maine District Court located in Augusta, Maine.

Issued in AUGUST, Maine in the County of Kennebec this 13th day of OCTOBER 2017, at 11:05am AM/PM.

This Court is authorized to issue this warrant pursuant to 15 M.R.S. §§55 & 56, M.R.U. Crim.P 41 and 41B.

Part III: My conclusion that such probable cause exists is based on the following factual information:

A. INTRODUCTON

1. I, Herbert Leighton, Detective for the Maine State Police Major Crimes Unit, make this affidavit in support of an application for a search and seizure warrant under Title 17-A, Chapter 3, Subchapters 10 & 11 as well as Rule 41B of the Maine Rules of Unified Criminal Procedure to require Facebook, Inc. to disclose to the government records and other information in its possession pertaining to the subscriber or customer associated with the accounts, including the contents of communications.
2. This affidavit is intended to show that there is sufficient probable cause for the requested search and seizure warrant and does not set forth all of my knowledge about this matter. The statements contained in this affidavit are based upon the following: my own personal knowledge; knowledge obtained from other individuals during my participation in this investigation, including other law enforcement officers; my review of records related to this investigation; communications with others who have knowledge of the events and circumstances described herein; and information gained through my training and experience.

B. EXPERIENCE

My education, training and experience may be summarized as follows:

I have been a Maine law enforcement officer since 1985, a sworn member of the Maine State Police since 1988 and a detective with the State Police Major Crimes Unit since February 1995. I am a founding member of the Maine State Police Evidence Response Team, having held the position of Team Commander from 2004 to 2015 when I retired from the team. I continue to maintain a forensic specialty in Bloodstain Pattern Analysis/ Crime Scene Reconstruction since 1997 and am the founding member of the Maine State Police Bloodstain Pattern Analysis Program.

C. STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

1. On September 14th, 2017 I spoke with Eric Verhille, employed as a Maine State Police Trooper. He told me that on a day in January, 2017, he and another trooper served a criminal summons on Nicholas Worthing, date of birth: [REDACTED] at Nicholas Worthing's residence, 14 Worthing Road in Pittston, for the crime of Stalking. Tpr. Verhille described the stalking incident as "Cyber-Stalking", commonly known as repeatedly using electronic communications to harass, frighten and/or threaten someone.
2. Tpr. Verhille said Worthing refused to sign the criminal summons. Worthing was told the signature was only an acknowledgment of receipt of the summons, that is was legally required and was a separate arrestable offense for refusing to sign the summons. Worthing continued to refuse to sign the summons. Tpr. Verhille said he and his fellow trooper made the decision not to arrest Worthing, but left the summons on his table and told him what the summons was for and his court date.
3. Tpr. Verhille said a short time later, dispatchers told him Nicholas Worthing had just called, wanting to know why State Troopers were at his residence. Tpr. Verhille said he and the fellow trooper responded back to the Worthing residence, to find Worthing outside screaming at them to leave his property immediately. The troopers told Worthing they came back to re-summons him for the crime of Stalking and that he needed to sign the summons. Worthing dialed 911 from his cordless phone then ran inside his residence. The troopers followed him inside and told Worthing once again he needed to sign the summons.
4. Once inside, Worthing told the dispatcher on the line the troopers were pointing a gun at him. Tpr. Verhille said at no point did anyone point guns at Worthing. Worthing still refused to sign the summons and was arrested for refusing to sign.
5. Tpr. Verhille said his wife, [REDACTED] at a later date, received the following message on her Facebook account from a person listed as "Nick Worthing": "Question. Do you ever think that your husband being a low-life douchebag arresting a single father of his eight-year-old daughter on a summons that is complete bull shit. Might affect your life? Have a good night...".

6. On September 20th, 2017 I interviewed ██████████ ██████████ said she received the message from "Nick Worthing" sometime in May, 2017. She said she had never heard of a Nick Worthing. She read the message "Nick Worthing" sent to her a few times trying to understand it and why she was asked why it might affect her life. ██████████ said it was the first time as a police officer's wife she didn't feel safe for her family as it was the first time anyone from her husband's work had ever tried to seek out her family. She asked her husband if she should be concerned and said she didn't sleep that night because she felt scared and afraid for her children and her family. ██████████ said her husband took a screenshot of the post.
7. On September 20th, 2017 I interviewed ██████████, mother of Tpr. Eric Verhille. ██████████ said she received a Facebook message from "Nick Worthing" which read: "Your sons a scum bag. Who is no good at his job. That low life broke in to my house, illegal home invasion.....In my opinion that's why there's so many cop shootings, is because of gang members like him. Fucking scum bag." After reading the message, ██████████ said she was scared and didn't know why someone would write this to her. ██████████ said she was scared for her son. ██████████ said she took a screenshot of the message.
8. On September 20th, 2017, I interviewed ██████████, father of Tpr. Eric Verhille. ██████████ said he first heard of Facebook messages from "Nick Worthing" being sent to his family from his daughter-in-law, ██████████, who confided to him she was scared and didn't know if she should tell her husband for fear of an escalation occurring if he were to learn what "Nick Worthing" wrote to her. ██████████ said his wife, ██████████ was the second person in his family to receive a message from "Nick Worthing. ██████████ said his wife was upset and afraid their son might get hurt no knowing how crazy the person might be.
9. ██████████ said he thought the Facebook message sent to his wife from "Nick Worthing" was sent sometime in June 2017. ██████████ said he received 3 Facebook messages from "Nick Worthing" in a short time span sometime the third week of August 2017. The messages together read:

"Your sons going to lern...Sorry bout it // You got good looking grandchildren....schools starting soon // Your sons a no good child molester and I'm going to make sure everybody in this community knows what that scumbag is".

10. [REDACTED] remembered Nick Worthing from at least 10 years ago where [REDACTED] was a teacher at Gardner High School when Nick was a student there. The only thing [REDACTED] remembered about Nick was he was a trouble-maker and had a temper. [REDACTED] remembered no specific conflict between himself and Nick Worthing and has had no contact with him since high school.
11. [REDACTED] said his stomach became upset when he read these messages from "Nick Worthing" on his Facebook account. [REDACTED] felt the messages sent to his family were threatening and worried he might do something to his grandchildren, remembering the type of temper he had in high school. [REDACTED] wondered what his wife, daughter-in-law and his grandchildren had to do with anything and continues to be concerned why this individual would seek his family out.
12. In my interview with [REDACTED] on September 20th, 2017, she said once she learned her father-in-law had received a Facebook message from "Nick Worthing", she checked her Facebook account to see if any more messages had come in. [REDACTED] said she then read a new message from "Nick Worthing", that had been sent on June 28th, 2017, which read: "You got some cute kids. How would you feel if you had a armed home invasion for no reason?....."
13. [REDACTED] said she received a third Facebook message from "Nick Worthing", which was sent on Friday, September 1st, 2017. The message read: "Not the heck well I guess it's a positive thing that high school student died. at least Eric can't rape her". Tpr. Verhille told me the high school student referred to in the message was [REDACTED] of [REDACTED] Maine, who died [REDACTED] on August, 31st, 2017.
14. On September 14th, 2017, an email was forwarded to this affiant that was originally sent to members of the Kennebec County Sheriff's Office from Kennebec County Sheriff's Office Criminal Intelligence Analyst Randall Parker on August 30th, 2017. Analyst Parker listed screenshots of posts Nick Worthing posted on the Kennebec County Sheriff's Office Facebook page between January through August 2017. A January 25th, 2017 post read: "..?...There's a *lot of ppl not happy...Hello?...We know your homes.. Like your gang like to attack us at...

Question. How would your kids feel of people showing up at your house...? Just a question because you douchebags would do it to us...Have a good night”.*

15. A May 29th, 2017 post send by Nick Worthing to the Kennebec County Sheriff’s Office read:
*“Break into my house with no justified reason and there was no reason. Just ignorance.
Why don’t you go take out the f druggies around. “we can’t just break into people’s houses.” You did it to me cunt heads! Fuck you low lifes! Most of this recent stuff is because of that no-good low-life Eric verhill. he’s a state cop but all you lowlife’s are all the same. I guess whatever happens. You had a heads up”.*
16. The final post Nick Worthing sent to the Kennebec County Sheriff’s Office Facebook page read: “Be careful you never know what could happen at a safety check”.
17. On September 15th, 2017, Facebook, Inc., confirmed receipt of a Preservation Request to preserve the Facebook account of “Nick Worthing” and the listed URL (web address) connected to the account. Facebook, Inc. stated they would take reasonable steps to preserve the account for 90 days.
18. A URL is a uniform resource locator, abbreviated as URL (also known as web address, particularly when used with HTTP), is a specific character string that constitutes a reference to a resource. In most web browsers, the URL of a web page is displayed on top, inside an address bar. An example of a typical URL would be "http://en.example.org/wiki/Main_Page".
19. On September 25th, 2017, I received a document from Maine State Police Troop D Commander, Lt. Aaron Hayden, of Facebook messages sent to the Facebook account of the Kennebec County Sheriff’s Department from “Nick Worthing”. One message read: “In my opinion if someone killed Eric verhille..It would be justified but I know that’s just in my opinion....I’m just a daddy trying to protect his daughter but with scumbags like you out there...Idk...”. Directly below this message was a picture of an adult male holding hands with a young girl, walking away from the camera, with a handgun tucked in the back waist area of the man, with what looks like a rifle strap on his back. The caption to the picture read: “When they know they’re your heart And you know you are their armor And you will destroy anyone who would try to harm her”. Below this post was an illustration of a large thumb’s up from “Nick Worthing”.

20. Another message listed in this document from “Nick Worthing”, posted to the Facebook account of the Kennebec County Sheriff’s Department talked about police officers trespassing “at the Smelt Camps”. “Nick Worthing” wrote: “I’m thinking we could do a citizen’s arrest for somebody trespassing with a deadly weapon...I believe that’s are right...? Isn’t it?”. A third message read: “In my opinion a dog is to Serve and Protect but if that dog bites you, it should get a bullet right in the f head.. Just my opinion”. This was followed by a Smiley Face with a wink.
21. On September 25th, I received a document from Katharine England from the Maine Department of Public Safety. The document included several messages sent to the Facebook account of the Maine State Police from “Nick Worthing” from June 14th, 2017 to June 19th, 2017. The messages open with: “Scum bags do your fucking job arrest at low life verhill for doing an illegal home invasion...Or are you just a gang that the public should rise up against?” After a series of posts, “Nick Worthing” writes: “Question. Am I able to go do my own citizen’s arrest? What’s required to do that? Since your game does not want to fallow the law...”. “In my opinion if someone did an armed home invasion, that person should be in jail.....”. “And in my opinion this is why you see the stuff that happens to Cops on TV”.
22. “Nick Worthing” continues on then writes: “Cant say i didnt try to talk this out...Whatever happens happens..Just know I felt threatened for my life and my daughters with criminals breaking in to my home”.
23. Lt. Aaron Hayden told me that, as a result of the messages “Nick Worthing” posted to the Maine State Police Facebook account, the Facebook account of “Nick Worthing” has been blocked. Lt. Hayden said to date, “Nick Worthing” has been the only account blocked on the Maine State Police Facebook page since its inception.
24. This affidavit was reviewed by Deputy District Attorney General Paul Cavanaugh. DDA Cavanaugh has been a prosecutor for over 25 years and has reviewed hundreds of search warrants.

PART IV: Based upon my education, training, experience and the facts made known to me set forth in this affidavit, your affiant believes the following:

1. That located in the Facebook account described above in Part I, evidence will be located which would reveal the identity of the person actually engaging in the conduct of Stalking.
2. Electronic data stored in the above described account such as IP Connection logs and Cookies may link Nicholas Worthing to a device or an internet connection.

3. A Cookie is a text file placed on your device by the site you are visiting. The Cookie can contain a lot of information about your browsing history on the particular website. The Cookie is unique to a particular device. Additionally the above described account may hold other viable information which will link a particular user to the crime of Stalking, pursuant to Title 17-A M.R.S. §210(A).

PART V: WAIVER AND PRECLUDING NOTICE

Your affiant is requesting that this court make a finding of an ADVERSE RESULT under Title 15 M.R.S. § 56 for the following reason. At this time, the subject has not been informed of this investigation. If the subject is notified of this investigation, the individual can delete material that is stored remotely as well as any remaining digital material that exists locally resulting in the destruction or tampering with evidence and/or potentially jeopardizing the investigation. Accordingly, I am requesting that the Court order that Facebook not notify the individual of this request and, similarly, that notice of receipt of the material also be waived for your affiant.

[X] Prohibition of Disclosure by Service Provider. Based on the facts set forth in the affidavit, and pursuant to M.R.U. Crim. P. 41B(c) & (d) and 16 M.R.S. §§ 643(3) & 649(3), it is hereby requested that the court order that the provider(s) of electronic communication service or location information service to which the warrant is directed are prohibited from disclosing the existence of the search warrant to any other person, based on the determination that such disclosure would have an adverse result, meaning (1) immediate danger of death or serious physical injury, (2) flight from prosecution, (3) destruction of or tampering with evidence, (4) intimidation of a potential witness, (5) potentially jeopardizing an investigation, or (6) undue delay of a trial.

[X] Waiver of Notice to Owner or User of Electronic Device. Based on the facts set forth in the affidavit, and pursuant to M.R.U. Crim. P. 41B(c) & (d) and 16 M.R.S. §§ 643(2) & 649(2), it is hereby requested that the court order that the notification ordinarily required under 16 M.R.S. §§ 643 & 649 is waived, based on the determination that such disclosure would have an adverse result, meaning (1) immediate danger of death or serious physical injury, (2) flight from prosecution, (3) destruction of or tampering with evidence, (4) intimidation of a potential witness, (5) potentially jeopardizing an investigation, or (6) undue delay of a trial.

Responsive Data:

Your affiant further requests that Facebook, Inc. shall disclose responsive data, if any, by sending to Detective Herbert Leighton, Maine State Police Major Crimes Unit, 1 Game Farm Road, Gray, ME, 04039 using his State of Maine employment email address at: herbert.m.leighton@maine.gov, notwithstanding 18 U.S.C. § 2252A or similar statute or code.

Your affiant would also request that, pursuant to 15 M.R.S. §56, that the Court order that Facebook, Inc. verify the authenticity of records that it produces by providing an affidavit that complies with the requirements set forth in the Maine Rules of Evidence, Rule 902(12). Your affiant will submit a form with the search warrant.

I respectfully request that civilian employees of Facebook, Inc. be authorized to assist in this search warrant. I further request that the warrant authorize the subsequent examination of the contents of the material provided by computer forensic examiners from the Maine State Police Computer Crimes Unit, or any other State or federal law enforcement agencies qualified to do so, and that it also authorize the assistance of civilian employees of such law enforcement agencies.

WHEREFORE, I pray that a warrant may issue authorizing a search of the Property/Premises described above in Part I for the Property/Evidence described above in Part II, and that if such Property/Evidence be found that it shall be seized.

I hereby swear under pains and penalties of perjury that the facts set forth in this affidavit are true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information and belief.

Dated: OCT 13 2017

Det. Herbert Leighton

Detective Herbert Leighton
